

Answers for MEETING 2: GREETINGS AND INTRODUCTIONS

Name : Ismail Nasution

NIM : 261011400021

Exercise 1: Listening

Part 1: Greetings in the Classroom

Missing Words (Prediction):

1. meet
2. Where
3. Chicago (or another city)
4. small
5. near
6. wanted
7. have
8. Vancouver
9. arrived
10. beautiful / nice

Comprehension Questions:

1. They are talking about Vancouver.
2. She has just been in Canada for a week (she just arrived this week).
3. Yes, it is her first day of school.
4. Brent says she will love Vancouver because it's very nice/beautiful there.
5. Brent has always wanted to go to Australia.
6. Yes, they are. They introduce themselves by name and say "Nice to meet you."
7. Brent holds out his hand to shake hands as a polite physical greeting.
8. He thinks wow of it and has always wanted to go there.
9. She is in Canada for school.
10. Yes, she will probably enjoy it because it is a nice place according to Brent.

Part 2: Greetings in Business

Missing Words (Prediction):

1. colleague / partner
2. taking
3. meet
4. today
5. pleasure
6. please
7. take
8. coat
9. seat
10. right

Comprehension Questions:

1. Mia is meeting them for a business meeting or job interview.
2. She says, "Nice to meet you Mr. Sinclair, Ms Evans. Thank you for taking the time to meet with me..."
3. They ask Mia to call them by their first names: David and Gina.
4. They ask Mia to take a seat.
5. They are happy to meet her (David says, "It's our pleasure").
6. It is a formal business situation because Mia uses "Mr." and "Ms." and formal expressions.
7. It is likely a job interview or formal business meeting because Mia thanks them for taking the time to meet her in their office.
8. Because it is a formal setting and it is their first time meeting, which shows politeness and respect.
9. To make the conversation feel a bit more relaxed and friendly while maintaining professionalism.
10. It suggests that it is best to start very formal (using Mr./Ms.) until the other person invites you to use their first name.

Exercise 2: Reading

Part A: True/False

1. F (Anna felt both excited and nervous).
2. T (She greeted the receptionist by saying "Good morning").
3. F (The receptionist smiled politely and replied).
4. T (Anna introduced herself and explained that she was a new employee).

5. T (Mr. Brown responded warmly).
6. F (The conversation was formal, and both speakers used polite and complete sentences).
7. T (During lunch with coworkers, the situation was more relaxed).
8. T (The greetings were more informal, and the language became friendlier).
9. F (Anna said goodbye to her coworkers by saying, "See you tomorrow").
10. T (Anna realized that different situations require different types of greetings).

Part B: Comprehension Questions

1. Anna felt both excited and nervous.
2. She said, "Good morning".
3. The receptionist smiled politely and replied, "Good morning. How may I help you?".
4. The receptionist guided her to the manager's office.
5. Anna said, "Good morning, Mr. Brown. My name is Anna. It's a pleasure to meet you".
6. Mr. Brown responded warmly, "Good morning, Anna. It's a pleasure to meet you too. How are you today?".
7. The conversation with her manager was formal using polite and complete sentences, while the conversation with her coworkers was more relaxed and used informal greetings.
8. They used informal greetings like "Hi, you must be Anna" and "Hey! How's it going?".
9. She said, "See you tomorrow".
10. She learned that formal greetings are important in professional settings, while informal greetings are more suitable for friendly and casual situations.

Exercise 3: Role Play

Part A: Job Interview (Formal)

Student B (Interviewer): Good morning. My name is Mr. Smith. It is a pleasure to meet you.

Student A (Applicant): Good morning, Mr. Smith. I am Alex. It's a pleasure to meet you too. Thank you for having me today.

Student B (Interviewer): You are welcome, Alex. How are you today?

Student A (Applicant): I am very well, thank you. And how are you?

Student B (Interviewer): I'm doing well, thanks. Please, take a seat, and let's begin the interview.

Part B: First Day at Work (Polite but relaxed)

Student B (Colleague): Hello! You must be the new employee. I'm Sarah. Nice to meet you.

Student A (Employee): Hi, Sarah. Yes, my name is John. Nice to meet you too.

Student B (Colleague): Welcome to the team, John. Where are you from?

Student A (Employee): Thank you! I am originally from Seattle. How about you?

Student B (Colleague): I'm from here. Let me know if you need any help finding your way around the office.

Part C: Meeting a Friend After a Long Time (Informal)

Student A (You): Hey, Budi! Oh my gosh, how's it going?

Student B (Friend): Hi! Pretty good, thanks! It's been so long. How are you doing?

Student A (You): I'm doing great! Just been busy with school lately. What's up with you?

Student B (Friend): Not much, just working and relaxing. We should definitely catch up properly soon!

Student A (You): Yeah, for sure. Catch you later, Budi!

Student B (Friend): See ya!